- Follow COVID-19 guidance to protect yourselves and others and comply with any health advice that is issued.

Guidelines for selectors

- Consideration of team composition so players from the same school or team are not advantaged over individual representatives.
- Where appropriate, concentrate on selecting players with generic skills rather than players for specific positions
- Where there may be a perceived or actual conflict of interest such as: trial coordinators assessing the selection of a friend or relative, this must be communicated to SSV and a plan to manage the conflict will be developed and implemented.
- Appropriate playing time to assess each trialist
- Trial coordinators /Team officials reserve the right to not require a player to participate in any trial stage if they deem it to be unnecessary
- Team Officials reserve the right to select a player who is injured or unavailable due to an approved reason during the trial process for reasons applicable to the Team Vic Invitational Policy.
- Team balance is critical to selection of the final squad.

Team Balance

The squad is limited to 14. This means “The Coach” is limited to a number of players per position. In many cases they will look for players who are adaptable and able to play in more than one position. The team also requires the balance of having a set number of forwards, midfielders, defenders and one goalkeeper per squad as well as left and right flankers and players who can fit into the team pattern of play. Often selection comes down to an instinctive process, a “gut” feels of selectors, rightly or wrongly they are asked to evaluate players who are often very even in ability in a very short time span. The final decision is made without fear or favour of any one person or group over another, the volunteer managers and the coach do their best to select a squad that will represent Victoria with pride and gain the most from a fantastic sporting and social experience. The Coach will select the best players according to his/her own belief of the game.
